

Contents

Introduction xiii

Part 1: Power, Respect and Workplace Culture 1

1 Choosing to Walk the Talk. 3
A Paper Strategy – Talking Is a Lot Easier than Walking 6

2 Do You Know Where Your Culture Is? 11
Who’s Got the Power?..... 13
What’s Respect Got to Do with It? An Overview of Canadian Human Rights Law..... 15

3 The Good, the Bad and the Ugly – Respect, Assumptions and Prejudice 29
The KPMG Way..... 36

Part 2: Respect – A Core Value in a Values-Based Culture 43

4 A Values-Based Culture 45

5 Values-Based Hiring – Respectful Recruitment 51

6 Can We Talk? Power, Fear and Disrespectful Behaviours in the Workplace 59
Is There a Bully in Your Workplace?..... 61
Intention vs. Outcome – Workplace Bullying vs.
Discriminatory Harassment 63
A Culture of Bullying 69
The Danger of Disrespect – The Costs of Workplace Bullying..... 81

7	Respectful Leadership	91
	Respectful Complaint Handling – Accessibility, Availability and Accountability	94
	Training for Respect	109
	Supporting Success – Respectful Performance Management	117

8	Respectful Management of Difference – Diversity, Discrimination and Dialogue	125
	Diversity, Power and Disrespect	128
	Respecting the “I” to Create the “Us” – “Big D” and “Little d” Differences	136
	Respectful Dialogue about Difference	140
	Respecting the “Whole Person”	150
	A Foundation of Trust	154
	If You Build a Respectful Culture, They Will Come – Attracting and Retaining a Diverse Workforce	158

Part 3: The Roadmap to Respect 173

9	Charting the Course for a Respectful Culture	175
	Start the Dialogue to Build Respect	177
	Put Your House in Order: Deal with Disrespectful Behaviour and Adopt a Respectful Workplace Policy	183
	Align Your Business with Your Values	189
	Respect and the Unionized Workplace	193

10	Leading the Change	199
-----------	---------------------------------	------------

	Notes	205
--	--------------------	------------

	Employers of Choice	209
--	----------------------------------	------------